Philadelphia and Cincinnati Nationals Play to Standstill.

GREAT PITCHERS' BATTLE

Total of Only Fourteen Hits Made During Long Contest.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 15 .- To-day's game here between Philadelphia and Cincinnati resulted in a sixteen-inning tie, at three runs each. It was a great Oldest Music House in Virginia pitchers' battle. Rowan, of Cincinnati, held the home team to five singles, and gave only four bases on balls. Not a hit was made off him after the ninth nning. Philadelphia's runs were due argely to timely hits, and stolen bases. Moore and McCuillan each pitched eight innings, the former being taken out to permit a substitute batsman to take his place. Knabe and Moran were sent to the clubhouse by Umpire Klem the tenth inning for disputing

HERZOG SAVES GAME

Boston, Mass., June 15.—Herzog made a great one-hand stop in the sixth inning, and enabled Boston to shut out St. Louis 2 to 6. Higgins was on second, when Bresnahan smashed one over third base, but Herzog dove over, took the ball with one hand, and then ran down Huffins. Mattern kept the visitors' hits scattered. The score:

FOURTEEN-INNING GAME

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 15 .- Brooklyn and Chicago had a fourteen-inning tussile to-day, the home team winning tus-sile to-day, the home team winning by 3 to 2. It was the keenest con-tested game seen here this season, and Barger brought home the winning run with a long double. The crowd jump-td to the field and carried the pitcher to the clubberys on its shoulder. to the field and carried the pitcher to the clubhouse on its shoulders. Bar. ger, beside pitching a brilliant game made four hits, two of which brought in runs. The visitors had many chances to win, but were balked by sensational pitching and fielding in the pinches. Tinker and Evers played great ball. The score:

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

Tom Messitt will be back in the Tom Messitt will be back in the game this afternoon with a throwing finger that can wing them down to second like a shot. That finger was somewhat crumpled by a tip foul two weeks ago, and has not been in playing form since. Now, however, it has gotten back into shape, and should prove just a wee bit embarrassing to the Roanokers.

Lynchburg took the only game of the early part of the week in the league yesterday, when that team outlexed and outplayed Norfolk. Rain stopped the game in the sixth inning, and the spectators yelled, but Lynchburg had the game, and they didn't yell but so much. It was proposed to play a double-header yesterday and have the thing over with but that have the thing over with, but tha same old J. Pluvius had a little say-so

If the rain don't stop pretty soon there won't be any necessity of having a league. Six innings played yesterday was the first of the week, and J. Pluvius stopped the game in the sixth inning because he preferred water to baseball.

Owner Bradley has advices that Jack Lawlor will be in Richmond to-day, to take charge of the team. Roanoke is scheduled to play a week-end series here, and the Colts have got to "get up and git" to take the requiste number of games. Roanoke was tolerably easy the last time that gang came to Richmond, and in view of the slump that has attacked them the Colts should have the series.

In the matter and his say-so went.

The past week has been about as bad for the game as any week could be. The rain has stopped most of the sames, and those it didn't stop it chilled so that the crowd was about according to the minimum. There is not pleasure in watching a baseball game when the spectator is frozen wet, and the only way to get rid of the discomfort is to stay away. And most of the spectators have stay-ded away.

Incidentally, Owner Bradley has taken no steps, beyond mowing the outer gardens, toward improving the Broad Street Park Although the writer did not note the matter as it writer did not note the matter as it came, most of the errors in last Sat-urday's game came from a bad dia-mond. If the infield looked less like mond. a cornfeld just after spring plowing and more like a clean piece of ground, it would improve the playing.
